> THE Kiangkwan with the Czarewitch and Prince George of Greece arrived in Canton about 4 p.m. on Sunday and went alongeide the new wharf off the Bund. The Viceroy, The Provincial Treasurer and a few high mandarins, who had been waiting for two or three hours, went on board the vessel to pay their respects. The Kiangkwan then moved to Shameen where the Imperial party landed and were received by the Consuls. At noon on Monday the Czarewitch proceeded to the Kwong Nga College, in a specially prepared chair decorated with the Imperial yellow. He was escorted by the Viceroy and the Treasurer, a body of armed guards and a Chinese military band. At the College the distinguished visitors were hanquetted, remaining there till about four o'clock; the Vicercy and his staff escorted them back to the Kiangkwan. The steamer with the Imperial party returned to Hongkong about 5 p.m. to-day. Their Imperial Highnesses leave to-morrow for Foochow.

Ir was the intention of Mr G. C. Miln to give his farwell performance on Monday evening, when the entertainment was to have been under the patonage of Admiral Sir F. W. According to our contemporary the Japan Gazette, the excitement about bowing to the Emperor's portrait has seread to Sendai. The Presbyterian Church t cretook the matter up, and made it the sub ject in the church, which enraged the students of the Bigher Middle School, who went to the church and demanded an explanation. Anti-Christian feeling seems on the increase in various quarters, hence. it is most desirable that Christians should -as far as possible avoid discussing subjects that are unimportant in themselves and yet sure to create hostility.

We read in the Jim Shimbun that from August, 1890 to February, 1891, the number of handkerchiefs of Japanese manufact dispose of the Sungbie Dua Samantan ture exported from Yukohama was 378,800 dozens. The growth of the trade in this article is very remarkable. The returns for the past three years are as follow :--
